

CLAUDIA HAFNER WATERCOLOR
Portraits of Life

Where has the first quarter of the year gone? Our season in South Florida spans October to April, and with it, outdoor festivals and exhibits. It feels like I just started putting up my tent for shows and this weekend it will end for the final weekend in Delray Beach at Veteran's Park April 1 & 2.

As the outdoor shows fade out, I'll be participating in more of the indoor exhibits. It was too difficult for me to divide up my inventory and do both indoor and outdoor during the season. I also had hoped to participate in some Earth Day events, but nothing has materialized. Some of my special projects and collections support the burrowing owl, sea turtles and Hawaii's endangered birds.

While I have not been painting too much, I have several new paintings destined for Art & Soul a fundraising event for Business for the Arts of Broward. I also have a piece with the Gold Coast Watercolor Society's Florida Focus show at ArtServe. Pieces are posted below.
