

CLAUDIA HAFNER WATERCOLOR
Portraits of Life

Invigorating time of year for me. I get to meet new people and customers, visit with returning collectors, and sell my art. I have even had an elementary school classmate track me down...whom i have not seen in over 50 years! Extraordinary of her to come by and even purchase one of my tote bags.

When January took off like a rocket, I failed to communicate like I wanted to. However, I do have new pieces, shows I've participated in have been successful, and I'm ready for upcoming ArtiGras Art Festival in Jupiter, FL in mid-February, as well as continuing to show on weekends in Delray Beach. If I had my way, I would exhibit at least 2 weekends a month. But since I need help to do so, I have to factor in those logistics.

I have managed to have new identity art created for my tent banner. Hence, I now have a banner for my newsletter. Hopefully in March I will be able to convert my website to a transactional website, with my original pieces for sale. Until then, I am busy outdoors exhibiting my art.
